

Christmas 2018 will be a celebration anew

Blessings to be had because your presence is due
Yes, Christmas happens no matter whether we are far or near
But Santa's Helpers on Bainbridge Island and in Poulsbo are glad it's up HERE.

You'll travel to the Puget Sound
Where trees are green and Orcas abound
Across the pond in London Town or Newbury Park
Let's plan to FACETIME those loved ones not around.

For colder climates, yes you are bound
But don't pack so much that your suitcases aren't easily carried up and down.

You can always shop at Harrod's, Poulsbo Village & borrow warm clothing or sit by a glowing fire
No one will be saying it's too hot for a fire or turn the air-conditioning higher
Many of our Christmas traditions are sure to continue
Some new celebrating might appear with Poulsbo as the new holiday venue

Watch out though for new wintery wonders – possibly snow?
No worries as reindeer and sleighs await you wherever you go.

If the winner of 'Twas the Night before Christmas' in London Or Newbury Park will be,
Santa's made plans for a new "gifter" and reader – Santa's appoint Judee!

But until our Celebration Historian, Elf Geoff, confirms the details for this activity, she just has to wait and see if her it will be.

So be of good CHEER as Christmas draws near and you depart
No matter where we are, we're family and always close to heart!
